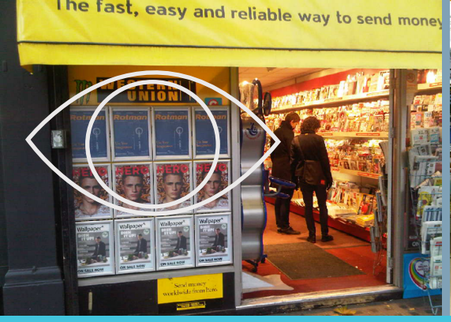
SCHOOL STRATEGY

Yes, it's really happening!
In a few short months we'll be opening the doors of the new building next door and in another few short months after that we'll be having a big party to celebrate the official opening! In the mean time, mark your calendars and start thinking about what you're going to wear to this exciting event!

Our own Jennifer Neill-Smith came up with this unique text treatment for our expansion materials. Look for this treatment to pop up all over the place next year.

R2R

A note on R2R:
We'll be taking January off! Look for a new issue February 2012.



I-SPY

With my little eye

The Rotman Magazine in Britain!
The Rotman Magazine is now on sale in London, England! This is in addition to the over 50 locations in Canada, including McNally Robinson in Winnipeg, Book City in the Annex, Atlantic News in Halifax and the UBC Bookstore.

BUILDING UPDATE

Have a question?
We have a forum where you can ask them! Visit rotman.utoronto.ca/expansion/faqs/ to log your question and we'll do our best to answer them in upcoming issues of R2R.

A note on furniture:
The process of finalizing furniture selection has been started and submitted to tender as of November 17, 2011. Over time existing furniture and signs will be replaced with the new look as a way of integrating the two sites.

CELEBRATING SUCCESS

November was a busy month. Here are some highlights.

CHARITY DODGEBALL TOURNAMENT

All eyes were on the Atrium November 18 for a dodgeball battle royal. Where teams made up of students, staff and faculty fought each other. First year student team 'Ok, I guess...' won the day.

*In fact, Gil has been taking a lot of the photos we've featured in R2R over the past few months. Including, those awesome shots from Careers Week in our November Issue.
