Get Involved

Your Rotman experience changed how you think, your career path – maybe even the course of your life. You have an opportunity to give back by getting involved in inspiring and supporting students and fellow alumni as they chart new professional directions. There are many ways to get involved with Rotman after graduation; contact us at alumni@rotman.utoronto.ca for more details or explore volunteer opportunities here.

Volunteer Opportunities

Advisors: With over 15 boards and committees related to research centres, programs and student clubs, alumni members are asked to provide their insights and perspectives.

Careers: Alumni are our most important resource as we help students and graduates along their career journeys. You can help organize workshops, prepare students for interviews, post full-time jobs or internships, attend recruitment sessions and much more.

Events: Between student clubs, alumni programming and public events come back as a speaker, panellist or for industry nights to share your knowledge and expertise.

Recruitment & Admissions: We are the community we build. Ambassadors are alumni worldwide who refer candidates and work with the Rotman admissions teams across all of our programs. Throughout the year, alumni recruitment ambassadors share their experiences as well as serve as a resource for prospective students.

Regional Ambassadors: Ambassadors are alumni worldwide who work with Rotman and U of T to help keep our community connected to each other and the School in their region.

Research Centres: Centres such as Behaviour Economics in Action (BEAR), Creative Destruction Lab (CDL), Rotman FinHub, Institute for Gender + the Economy (GATE), TD Management Data and Analytics Lab and others provide an essential link between academia and industry. Alumni can participate in faculty and student led projects, seminars and conferences or become corporate partners.

Reunions: Are you celebrating a milestone year? If so, volunteer to be a Reunion Ambassador for Reunite at Rotman, our homecoming weekend. Alumni Reunion Ambassadors work with us on planning a memorable celebration for you and your classmates.

Student Experience: Alumni helps diverse students gain the knowledge, skills, confidence and intellectual agility that they'll need to thrive in a world of accelerating change. Creating student experiences that are relevant and impactful help empower us all as a community. You can help contribute to the student experience by offering to host a club event, company site visit, participate in a capstone course, speak in class and much more.

Invest in Rotman

“As an alumnus and long-time supporter of the School, I’m proud and excited to watch Rotman prepare the next generation of innovative and forward-thinking business leaders.”

-Barry McInerney, BCOM '85, MBA '87
Dean’s Society Member

Rotman is a place where extraordinary people come together to challenge assumptions, reinvent models and transform the role of business in our communities. Philanthropic support enables the School to launch ground-breaking research centres and institutes, offer state-of-the-art facilities and experiential learning opportunities and attract the world’s best and brightest faculty and students.

With a faculty renowned for its expertise and a student body fueled by curiosity, we have become a hub for cutting-edge research and thought leadership, driving the evolution of management thinking.

The support of our donors has a ripple effect throughout our academic community. Their generosity provides the necessary resources to enhance our educational programs, facilitate cutting-edge research, and create transformative learning experiences for our students. From funding scholarships and fellowships to supporting faculty research and the development of state-of-the-art facilities, philanthropic investments lay the foundation for innovation, excellence and societal impact.
