

Module Destinations*

Module 1:
North America
August 21–
September 2, 2016

Module 2:
East Asia
November 13–25, 2016

Module 3:
South Asia
March 19–31, 2017

Module 4:
Europe
June 18–30, 2017

Module 5:
South America
October 15–27, 2017

Module 6:
Middle East
February 4–16, 2018

* Program schedule and locations subject to change

Global Executive MBA

The University of Toronto Global Executive MBA is an innovative international management and leadership program. The world's most global executive MBA, this intensive 18-month program immerses you in six key business centres around the world. You emerge with the concepts and frameworks to lead in a globalized business environment, a new network of international contacts, and invaluable insights to fast-track your career.

The University of Toronto Global Executive MBA Advantage

Learn international management and leadership in six key economic centres. Discover, first-hand, the diverse opportunities and challenges that shape global business.

Live and work anywhere in the world. Develop a global perspective with our innovative residential modules while you live and work in your home country.

Experience unparalleled program support. The University of Toronto Global Executive MBA was one of the first of its kind and you'll benefit from our continued innovation in global program delivery.

Build a world-wide professional network. Gain access to the knowledge and experience of top talent from around the world – your classmates.

Earn a Master of Business Administration from the University of Toronto, one of the top ranked universities in the world.

Applied Innovation & Design Thinking

Our unique curriculum teaches you to approach challenging business problems from a new perspective. Working on an entrepreneurial venture or a problem faced by a global company, you'll learn to be more innovative and to create strategies to support sustainable, high-performing companies. These skills will have a lasting impact on your career.

Leadership Development

An essential aspect of an executive MBA is leadership. A series of self-assessments will help you develop your leadership plan. Through the course of the program you'll work on team building, emotional intelligence, decision making, relationship management, organizational and personal leadership and learn from leaders from around the world.

The University of Toronto

Established in 1827, the University of Toronto has one of the strongest research and teaching faculties in North America. It is ranked as one of the top 20 universities globally.* With more than 82,000 students and over 500,000 alumni active in 184 countries around the world, University of Toronto's influence is felt in every area of human endeavour.

Executive MBA Career Services

As an executive MBA student, you will receive one-to-one career management services including:

- Career planning and advancement strategies
- Resumé consulting
- Interview preparation and techniques
- Job offer and negotiation advice
- Networking tips and tools
- Assistance in personal branding and marketing
- Selecting and partnering with recruitment agencies
- And more...

The Rotman School of Management

One of the top business schools in Canada and the world, Rotman receives consistently high marks by The Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg Businessweek, The Economist and the Financial Times. The school is committed to innovation in business education, and addressing the new challenges of a global economy. The Rotman School is fully accredited by the AACSB.

Outstanding Faculty

Our faculty have stellar reputations for their groundbreaking research, published work, and their authoritative insights into an exceptionally wide range of management issues. They are selected from the University of Toronto and our affiliate institutions around the world to ensure your classroom experience is both engaging and culturally-relevant. The blended nature of the faculty ensures that you gain a variety of perspectives on global business issues and gain access to a wide network of thought leaders.

Program Dates

August 2016 – February 2018

Program Structure

Six intensive two-week modules combine in-class lectures with site visits to global enterprises. In between modules, your learning experience is complemented by team-based projects, individual assignments and online courses and exams.

Program Fee

$102,000 CDN
+ Travel & Accommodations
($15,000-$25,000 CDN)

Scholarships

Early enrollment incentives and scholarships are available. Please contact us for more information.

Minimum Admission Criteria

- Five years of work experience
- An undergraduate degree (preferred)
- Successful admissions test; please contact us for more information
- Demonstrated success in a multicultural team environment
- Leadership experience
- Two professional references
- Full-time employment
- Approval from your employer

* Times Higher Education 2015, QS World University Rankings 2015

What Our Alumni Say

“It gives you a motivational push to do more, to shape the future and to take responsibilities for yourself.”

“You walk away from this knowing more and feeling more confident. You get a better sense of self and a better view of the world.”

“You end up with an unparalleled network of like minded executives from around the world.”

“Working with team members from around the world offers a multitude of perspectives that you normally are not exposed to even working in a multi-national corporation.”

Contact Us

Rotman School of Management
University of Toronto
Tel: +1 416 946 3022
emba@rotman.utoronto.ca

Information Sessions & Webinars

Attend an information session or join us for one of our global webinars. Go to www.rotmangemba.com for details.