In the competitive Canadian workplace, getting ahead takes focus, grit and a commitment to continual personal growth. We’ll equip you with the techniques and strategies you need to make the most of the skills, experience and education that you brought with you to Canada.

You’ll attend sessions Tuesdays and Saturdays on-site at the Rotman School of Management with experienced faculty, instructors and coaches who create stimulating learning environments. These include case-studies, interactive discussions, activities and roleplay. During and after the program, you’ll join an ever-expanding network of successful alumni.

Business Edge participants master the ability to present, negotiate, influence and lead. You will emerge with a clear understanding of your personal brand and value to any organization – and how to capitalize on both. Through this transformative program, you’ll discover your path and integrate new tools and perspectives to achieve your full potential in Canada.

Who should attend
- Highly skilled, internationally educated professionals with at least 1 year of work experience in Canada and who are currently underemployed
- Candidates have a minimum of 5+ years’ of work experience before immigrating to Canada and advanced verbal and written English
- Are open-minded, committed to learning, adaptable and ready for growth and change

Organizational benefits
- Equip employees with intercultural communication skills to improve teamwork, satisfaction and retention

Participant benefits
- Learn the ‘unwritten rules’ of the Canadian workplace
- Develop strategies and techniques to become more visible in the workplace
- Identify and unpack your strengths to communicate your key messages and value propositions
- Become a more effective communicator and negotiator
- Gain the critical behavioural and leadership skills necessary to get ahead
- Clarify your goals and targets to effectively manage your career
- Gain a robust alumni/peer network

The details:
Location:
Rotman School of Management
105 St George St
Toronto, M5S 3E6

Program fee:
$2,060*
* Financial assistance may be available.

For more information:
416.978.6803
businessedge@rotman.utoronto.ca

For more information and/or to apply:
https://uoft.me/businessedgecampus