

WHY ROTMAN FOR WOMEN?

The Rotman School of Management is a leader in promoting and supporting gender diversity and is the only business school in Canada with a dedicated Initiative for Women in Business.

With inspired leadership, flexible programming and peer networks, Rotman proudly supports women's career development as a keystone to organizational prosperity.

INSPIRED LEADERSHIP

In 2008, the Rotman School of Management created the Initiative for Women in Business. The Initiative supports women throughout their careers by:

Championing Women's Leadership

Creating a Community of Like-Minded Professionals

Addressing Challenges Women Face in Leadership Roles

FLEXIBLE PROGRAMMING

Rotman offers flexibility with respect to program structure and content, directly supporting students who have competing priorities and diverse business interests. Here's how:

Earn your MBA before or after work and minimize the impact on your other personal and professional obligations.

Morning & Evening MBA

Customize your MBA experience based on your personal interests and career goals with over 90 electives.

Full-Time MBA

Maximize the learning experience while minimizing time away from work and family.

One-Year Executive MBA

Study finance and address the high market demand for women in the industry. Rotman is ranked in the Top 10 for finance by the Financial Times.

Master of Finance

Earn your MBA on 4 continents and close the gap between female and male professionals for international assignments.

Omnium Global Executive MBA

Target specific skills in short duration programs taught by Canada's Leading Executive Education Provider.

Initiative for Women in Business & Executive Programs

Initiative for Women Business
Rotman

Rotman offers customized supports for women throughout their careers – and provides the infrastructure for peer support. Two student-run groups, Rotman Commerce Women in Business (RCWIB) and Women in Management Association (WIMA), receive guidance from Rotman's faculty and staff.

Rotman degree and non-degree programs not only prepare women with world class knowledge and skills, but also the confidence and ability to take on the big challenges and opportunities upon graduation.

www.rotman.utoronto.ca/women

A Student's Perspective

“THE ROTMAN SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT provides its students with an UNPARALLELED ADVANTAGE

THAT TRANSCENDS ITS CLASSROOM WALLS.

I VALUE THE COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH

Rotman takes in technically preparing students to

SOLVE COMPLEX PROBLEMS

and, more importantly, in

MENTALLY PREPARING ITS FEMALE STUDENTS TO SUCCEED

IN POSITIONS THAT HAVE HISTORICALLY PROVED TO BE CHALLENGING.

Gaining access to esteemed female faculty members,

A NETWORK OF ACCOMPLISHED PEERS AND ALUMNI

as well as clubs that provide female students with the tools necessary to thrive, inspires confidence that I can contribute

TO BUILDING A SUCCESSFUL LEGACY

for women in the workplace.”

SHAHLA REHMAN
Full Time MBA Student
& 2014 WIMA President