Prepared Remarks of Attorney General Michael B. Mukasey at the State of the Border Press Briefing

The following are the prepared remarks of Attorney General Michael B. Mukasey at the State of the Border Press Briefing:

Good Afternoon. Thank you Secretary Chertoff.

The security of our borders raises issues basic to us as a nation. The ability to control who -- and what -- comes into and out of a country important attributes of a sovereign government, and being able to do that is vital to our nation's security.

Despite Congress's failure to address the many problems facing the border, a lot to be done. This is essential to our nation's security.
