Menu Foods' recall boosts 'non-traditional' pet food in North America 04/12/2007
 In the wake of the upheaval in the North American pet food market arising from the Menu Foods' recall earlier this year, some consumers have lost faith in mainstream manufacturers' products and are putting their faith in such hitherto obscure niche products as raw, fresh, vegetarian or holistic pet foods to satisfy the nutritional requirements of their cats and dogs.

1. To perform a quick and broad search, click on Search, Quick Text Search

2. Enter keywords in the Search Term box, and select types of information to be searched, and click on GO.

The screenshot shows the GMID search interface. At the top, it says "University of Toronto" and "GMID - Global Market Information Database". On the right is the "EUROMONITOR INTERNATIONAL" logo. Below this is a navigation bar with "SEARCH" highlighted in red, followed by "INDUSTRIES", "COUNTRIES", "CONSUMERS", "COMPANIES", and "GEOGRAPHIES". Below the navigation bar, it says "My Home > Search > Text Search". There are two buttons: "Quick Text Search" (highlighted) and "Advanced Text Search". A search box labeled "Enter Search Term" contains the text "jewellery". Below the search box is a "Search within" section with three checked checkboxes: "Statistics", "Reports", and "Information Sources". The "Reports" section has radio buttons for "Title" (selected) and "Body". A red "GO" button is at the bottom right. At the bottom of the page, there are links for "About Euromonitor International" and "Terms & Conditions".
