Roubini Global Economics is a leading independent, global economic research and investment strategy consulting firm founded by acclaimed economist Nouriel Roubini. With offices in New York and London, our team of nearly 50 economists, strategists and analysts serve over 1200 clients around the world and cover all regions of the globe providing macroeconomic analysis, strategic recommendations, and actionable advice. Our online platform, Roubini.com, gives you access to RGE's rich and timely research and analysis and our unique understanding of the modern global economy.

DISCOVER ROUBINI GLOBAL ECONOMICS:

CRITICAL ISSUES:

Identify daily key economic developments impacting the global economy and financial markets

Timely, intensive and in-depth sweep of the global economic landscape

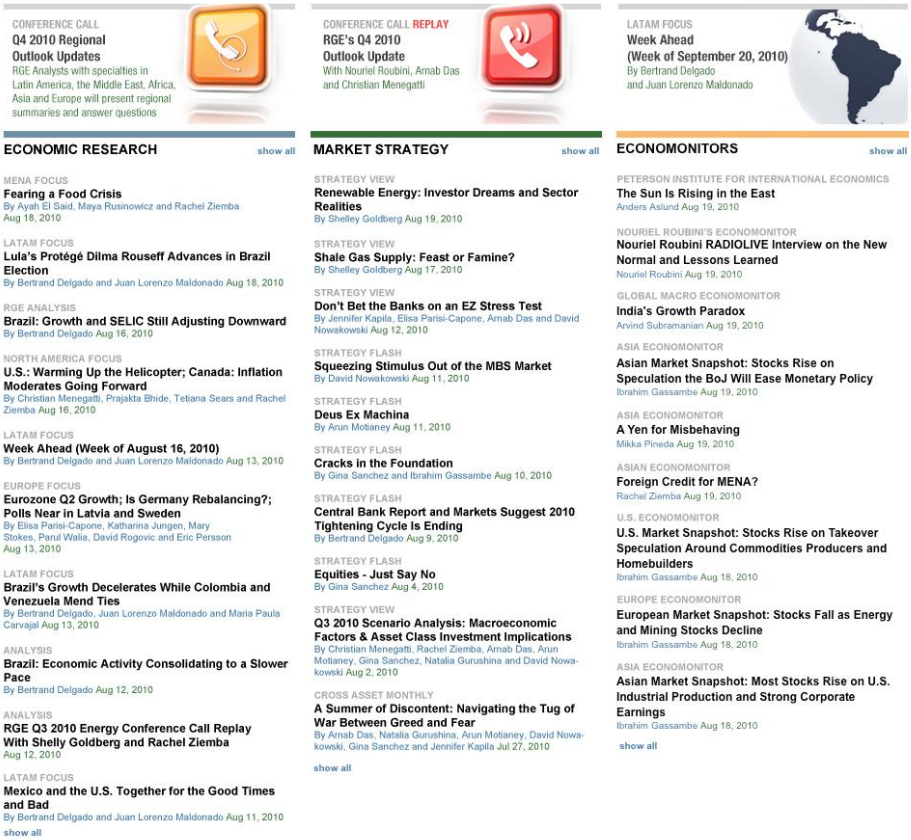
BRIEFINGS:

Background information providing the vital context to the topics, practices, ideas and questions driving the global economy

ECONOMIC RESEARCH:

Exclusive research and analysis produced by RGE's team of nearly 50 economists, strategists and analysts

Deep-dive into the factors driving global finance and markets



MARKET STRATEGY:

Analysis of important global market trends to identify challenges and opportunities across six major asset classes – commodities, currencies, fixed income, equities, credit markets, and emerging markets

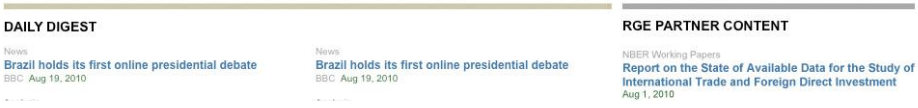
ECONOMONITORS:

Viewpoints from Nouriel Roubini, RGE Analysts and a network of over 300 influential contributors in economics

Draws together opinions and insight from the finest minds in economics and finance

DAILY DIGEST:

Our daily "Editor's Choice" offering of writings, reports and other analysis shaping the global economic debate – all selected by our economists



RGE PARTNER CONTENT:

Reports and white papers sourced from leading economic think tanks and world-recognized economic organizations