

ICPM PROFESSORSHIP IN PENSION MANAGEMENT

Prof. Alexander Dyck, a noted expert in corporate governance and corporate finance, will be the inaugural holder of the ICPM Professorship in Pension Management.

The Rotman International Centre for Pension Management at the University of Toronto's Rotman School of Management is pleased to announce that four of Canada's leading pension funds have established the ICPM Professorship in Pension Management at the Rotman School.

Prof. Dyck will undertake research in various aspects of pension management, including governance, organization design, and the drivers of organizational performance. An additional goal is to add pension-related content to the MBA, Executive MBA, and Master of Finance programs at the Rotman School.

This professorship was established with the generous support of:

- Canada Pension Plan Investment Board
- Ontario Municipal Employees' Retirement System
- Rotman International Centre for Pension Management
- Hospitals of Ontario Pension Plan
- Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan
