

#1 Canada's leading
Executive Education provider
in Open Enrolment Programs
THE FINANCIAL TIMES 2018

Strengthen and promote effective leadership practice for senior police officers.

Why Rotman?

As part of the University of Toronto, the Rotman School of Management is Canada's leading business school and has Canada's largest group of management faculty. It is home to some of the most innovative research institutes in the world and boasts an impressive network of global partnerships in a variety of academic, corporate and community sectors.

At Rotman Executive Programs, Canada's leading executive education provider for open-enrolment programs, we enable leaders to develop the capacity to transform themselves, their organizations and their communities by offering specialized business education programs for individual and organizations which address today's business challenges and opportunities.

Enhance your leadership capabilities.

The Police Leadership Program (PLP) is a collaboration between the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police (OACP) and the University of Toronto's Rotman School of Management.

This unique three-week intensive experience focuses on the key facets of leadership and provides participants with the opportunity to challenge themselves in a dynamic learning environment.

Participants are equipped with the necessary skills and tools to think differently, make better decisions, be better negotiators, communicate more effectively, act with integrity and political astuteness, understand the implications of financial decisions, manage and lead change and contribute to the overall health of the organization.

Learn by doing.

Anchored by relevant content and activities such as in-class instructions, simulations, project and peer-based learning and more, participants will address real-time policing issues.

Key Benefits

During the program participants will have the opportunity to

- Engage with industry experts (both from policing and the business community) and Rotman faculty
- Network with peers from numerous police services
- Be exposed to the latest thinking in leadership practice
- Integrate and apply learning and concepts to real-time projects
- Hone and harness leadership competencies to promote organizational and personal effectiveness

We're here to help.

The program is facilitated by Rotman faculty who are at the forefront of thought leadership and practice, along with relevant and prominent guest speakers from law enforcement and the corporate world.

Who Should Attend?

The program is designed for senior, experienced police officers:

- who seek to advance to the executive levels of police command and management
- with 10 years of experience as a sworn police officer, with a record of high achievement
- with demonstrated potential and ambition to move into a command position
- who can receive sponsorship and support from the appropriate nominating officer

Past participants include municipal and community police services from across Ontario, as well as professionals from the Ontario Provincial Police, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and the Canadian Forces Military Police.

A discrete number of qualified civilian police managers are accepted for class participation. Participants are nominated by their Chief or Commissioner and sponsored by their department.
