The most iconic leaders of our time have one thing in common: a life-long commitment to continuous improvement. Now, you can gain recognition for your dedication to long-term professional development and your commitment to stay ahead of today's critical issues.

It's simple. Over three years, complete three qualifying programs in any order and earn the Rotman Excellence in Executive Leadership Certificate from Canada's leading business school and top University.

Our team of learning experts has designed a suite of programs that hone both your leadership capabilities and strategic understanding of current and future topics specifically so you can stay a step ahead. Curate your professional development by completing at least one program from the Leadership Suite and up to two from the Focused Suite to earn your certificate.

Why a certificate?

- » Gain recognition of your long-term commitment to leadership development from Canada's #1 Open Enrolment Executive Education provider
- » Receive recognition as a Rotman Executive Programs graduate, with access to the school-wide alumni network
- » Enjoy membership in an exclusive LinkedIn group

You will also receive

- » A graduate discount offer you can share with friends and family
- » Exclusive invitations to special events

How does it work?
