

Navigating Intercultural Complexities

You've hired a diverse team. So now what?

Intercultural workplaces drive innovation. As the demand for global talent rises, team leaders impact how organizations adapt to compete and grow.

Rotman's Navigating Intercultural Complexities program gives you access to industry experts on intercultural effectiveness.

Equip yourself with the tools and strategies to maximize value from an increasingly diverse workforce.

Program Dates

To be announced soon.

Program Fee

$4,500 + HST

Participant Profile

Managers with minimum 6 months of experience leading teams

Scan the QR code or click here to register

Elevate Your Leadership Skills

Learn to mobilize diverse skills and improve productivity across your organization.

Develop Intercultural Intelligence

Understand how intercultural communication impacts your team and apply new learnings accordingly

Discover Hidden Potential

Construct work environments that foster diverse ideas, creativity, and innovation

Remove Barriers to Success

Identify and address practices that can deter inclusivity and result in low engagement

Champion Intercultural Leadership

Promote outcomes of successful inclusive leadership strategies and become an advocate for intercultural effectiveness

Program Outcomes

- Certification from the Rotman School of Management, Canada's leading business school.
- Define your competitive edge to improve the effectiveness of intercultural teams
- Skills to leverage diverse talent and expand global connections and clientele
- Tools to counter unconscious bias and foster collaboration
- Insights and strategies to best prepare your organization for globalized industries and workforces

For more information about the program contact:
Email: businessedgeadmissions@rotman.utoronto.ca
Phone Number: 416-978-7059